CITY NEWS.

BAILBOAD EARNINGS .- The Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad earned, last month, $345,417 14. The falling off of military transportation caused a decrease of $21,-270 32 over the earnings for August, 1864.

HEAVY TRAVEL .- The immense amount of N. C., made a stirring speech, dwelling at travel on the Lake Shore Bailroad has compelled the company to put an extra train on the road between this city and Buffalo. The new arrangement, we understand, went into effect vesterday.

PROSPECTIVE SHIP BUILDING .- We are informed by a prominent ship-builder here, Aid Society." that a number of vessels will be built in our ship-yards the coming season. The last year was very dull in this respect, but there was no more stagnation in this branch of building than in the erection of public and private houses.

Cleveland, Sept. 13th. MYSTERIOUS DISAFPRARANCE,-We gav several days since an account of the sudden disappearance of an estimable lady of Ravenus, who had just been married to a highly respectable citizen of that place. which was furnished us by one of a party who had come to this city in search of the missing woman. The Ravenna Democrat gives a somewhat fuller statement of the sad affair, which we quote as follows: Upon Monday afternoon, Sept. 4th, Mrs David N. Furry left her house on Prospect street, and has not been seen or heard of since. A vigorous search for her was insti-tuted on Mondey night and continued for several days, but without avail. Mrs. Furry —formerly Miss Lucy E. Wing, whose fam-ily reside in Brimfield—was married upon the 39th of August, six days previous to her disappearance, and became the second wife of a most respected citizen, and step-mother of a family of four children. Bhe was a religiously conscientious person, of exempla-ry mind and habit, of a sensitive tempera-ment, retiring manners, with a predisposition to periods of morbid melancholy. She is supposed to have left her pleasant home in a state of temporary derangement, which can only be stiributed to a want of confidence in herself to perform her duties as wife and mother in the manner in which she believed they should be done—and she believed they should be used these grave doubts, preying upon her senthese grave doubt, preying upon her sen-sitive organism, temporarily overthrew that judgment which had ever before char-acterized her, and caused the abandonment of home, family and friends, which have filled them with almost unavailing grief.

Without in any manner or by any de-meanor indicating her purpose—if indeed at the time any universe.

at the time any purpose was pre-meditated—Mrs. Furry left her house, and as before stated, has neither been seen or heard part of the performance was the festival, of by any one. She is about 5 feet 7 inches high, weight which proved a brilliant and happy affair. 150, 26 years of age; complexion light, eyes blue, hair light brown, naturally The company remained at the Hall until waved near parting, a small wart near right eye, in speech deliberate and conversation intelligent. Eastern ex-change is firm at par buying and 1-10 premium There is a large diminution this week in the curtoms demand for Gold, and the market does not ex-hibit the strength it has for some time past. No decided decline, however, can be reasonably ex-pected for at least a mouth yet, unless the Government shou d become a large sejer. The face that this may occur at any time will prevent a material advance. The price cipsed to day at 145%. The New York Herald says there is a prospect of the loan for funding certificates of indebtedness and interest-bearing notes being placed on the marks t within a short time, and it is understood that the benus into which these flusting securities may be funded at par, with the accrued interest allowed, will be five-twenties, bearing the usual rate of six per cent. interest.

The Breadstuffe market East continues to de cliue, and the market here is more or less depressed in-consequence. The extreme heat of the weather has also considerable influence in restricting trade, particularly in produce. Flour is held quite firm, particularly by city millers, who report a fair demand, but in the aggregate business is dull. The receipts from the interior are very light, and the stock in market small. In Wheat transactions are exclusively upon orders from the interior, and at these are filled at an advance of 2630 upon was dealers on the stot would pay, reported sales must receive this deduction to approximate prices in the open market.
